Description

This sumptuous pedestal is a remarkable example of the Louis XVI style, combining the richness of gilt bronze with the finesse of hand-painted porcelain.

The circular celestial blue porcelain top is adorned with finely painted medallions of royal portraits, centred around a male figure in ceremonial dress, surrounded by eight female figures. The set is embellished with delicately applied gold motifs.

The gilt bronze frame features a finely chiseled frieze, adding a touch of elegance and luxury.

The tripod base in gilded bronze, of great visual lightness, adopts neoclassical lines inspired by antiquity, resting on a carefully crafted triangular base.

An exceptional decorative piece, this table-top is
