Description

Beautiful embossed and gilded brass candlestick, mounted as a lamp. It rests on a tripod base whose three corners are finished with a bronze claw foot. Each side making up the base is richly decorated with liturgical motifs. The central shaft, in the shape of a baluster, is also heavily decorated and has a beautiful drapery work at its top. Our lamp base is topped with a recent tobacco-brown lampshade. The electrification has been completely redone. The lamp lights up using a bayonet bulb. Very beautiful manufacture from the end of the 19th century, beginning of the 20th century. Dimensions: Length of the wire 220 cm diameter of the lampshade: 40 cm at the bottom // 30 cm at the top. height of the base alone, up to the socket: 49 cm total height with lampshade: 69.5 cm width at the base of the base, from one
