Description

Very beautiful canvas circa 1820 which is signed but indistinctly "Bain...llé" and dated "18...". To be identified. It represents a handsome man with a strong and determined look. He is dressed in the fashion of the time and wears the Legion of Honor. Beautiful work on the radiance of his skin and his very romantic hair. The canvas is original and comes from Delarue fils, which is a guarantee of quality. Presence of non-shocking cracks. Has a beautiful gilded frame dating from the time of the canvas and format: 52 X 44.5 cm.
