Description

Elegant medium-small drop-shaped mirror, dating back to the neoclassical period. This refined work is distinguished by a frame decorated with crystals that have geometric shapes, beads and stars, the latter applied on the four sides in the center. The cymatium, equally elaborate, has a ribbon decoration, also enriched with crystals. The mirror glass is period and contemporary with the frame. Probably initially conceived as a fan, the mirror stands out for its small size and excellent condition of conservation. Very elegant and sophisticated, it is able to enhance any environment with taste and elegance. Tuscan manufacture dating back to the late 18th century.

Measurements: H x W x D 84 x 59 x 3.5cm
