Description

Bronze bas-relief, representing Bonaparte crossing the Alps, after the famous painting by Jacques-Louis David (August 30, 1748-December 29, 1825). Fine and very detailed with a double brown medal patina. Marked JL DAVID at the top right and bottom left Bonaparte Hannibal and Karolus Magnus. Work celebrating the feat of these great men in crossing the Alps. Good condition. Presented on an oak board. I note on the back a missing attachment, visible photo No. 7.
