Description

Interesting piece of furniture in the "brutalist" style, made in Belgium circa 1970/1975. It was made of solid oak and oak veneer. It includes two doors with a lock and key as well as two large drawers. Inside, you will find two large shelves decorated in light oak. The doors are decorated with an interesting three-dimensional pattern made of solid oak. This piece of furniture, due to its dimensions and its equipment, can be used for many purposes: dresser, office furniture, clothes rack, bookcase, hi-fi or television cabinet, bar, the choice is yours. It is in very good original condition, nothing broken, no missing wood, no chipping in the paint. It has been completely cleaned and is ready for the use you have chosen for it.
