Description

This superb gilt mirror, dating from the 19th century, is a refined example of the Louis XV style. It features a hand-carved wooden frame, richly decorated with floral motifs, scrolls and foliage, as well as a central medallion decorated with cherub figures. These elements are typical of decorative mirrors of the period, which combined elegance and sophistication. With its dimensions of 76 cm x 122 cm, this imposing mirror is a true centerpiece. The gilding, subtly patinated by time, testifies to the authentic and historical character of this work. The mercury glass, although showing some normal signs of wear related to its age, retains all its authenticity and charm. Stamped AB BX for AB Bordeaux.
