Description

Animal pendant from the 50s representing a poodle. It is entirely composed of 585/°° gold (14 KT, hallmark), divided into two colors according to the areas of the dog's body: yellow gold for the smooth areas, blackened gold to represent the animal's curly hair. Its eyes come alive with the sparkle of two brilliant-cut diamonds, and its tongue is rendered by a red stone of the synthetic ruby type. This poodle is mounted on a yellow gold bail decorated with a line of brilliant-cut diamonds. Total weight of diamonds estimated at approximately carat
Gross weight: 7.10 g Condition: imperceptible micro-scratches on the metal, black rhodium plating in perfect condition, natural inclusions in the diamonds not visible to the naked eye
