Description

Imposing and very decorative clock in the Louis XV style and from the Napoleon III period around 1860, stamped on the plate of the mechanism "VINCENT CIE" clockmaker referenced in the Tardy on the date 1860, dictionary of French clockmakers. Thick architecture in gilded bronze of very good quality, of animated shape decorated with scrolls, fleurons and branches of flowers, decorated at the top with long scrolls.

Large domed dial in white enamel accompanied by finely worked gilded hands. Protected by a domed glass set in a chiseled bezel.

Original mechanism without modification, striking from hours and half hours on old bell.
