Description

Large oil on canvas depicting Christ. Very good quality of execution, the face is treated with a beautiful degree of precision. The shadows cast in particular at the level of the crown of thorns and the neck are particularly well worked, they give a beautiful feeling of realism. French school in the taste of the 17th century. Signed and dated lower right "Suzanne Bosc June 19, 1893". Modern quality frame. Despite the lack of paint at the bottom of this painting, it retains a very beautiful presence, the quality of the work drawing the eye to the face of Christ. Please note: this painting is in good general condition. The bottom of the painting has significant paint losses and is clearly visible in the photo. Please look carefully at the photos.
