Description

A large pedestal table that can be used as a mahogany dining room table. It rests on a central column shaft supported by a tripod base. It has its original grooved "grey Pyrenees" marble. Note the small chips under the marble edge that are barely visible. It dates from the very beginning of the 19th century, around 1820.

In order to offer more space to guests, we can optionally offer a modern folding top 120cm in diameter, or six people.
