Description

Large clock in the Louis XV style and Napoleon III period, signed on the dial "Richond 11 Boulevard Montmartre", clockmaker referenced in the Tardy, dictionary of French clockmakers.

In gilded bronze, very beautiful architecture, very lively and openwork decorated with acanthus leaves and shells, as well as grid surfaces on the front and sides. Chiseled bronze dial set with thirteen enameled cartouches, protected by a domed glass.

Original mechanism without modification, ringing from the hours and half-hour on an old bell.
