Charles Fernand de Condamy (Gamaches, 1847 - Nice, 1913) is a French painter and watercolorist, specializing in the animal genre, particularly horses and hunting scenes. Charles de Condamy was a student of Barrias. He exhibited at the Salon from 1878 to 1882. He was appreciated by a European aristocratic clientele. His representations of dogs, hunts and steeple chases were often included in magazines such as Le Soleil du Dimanche and distributed as engravings. He created a hunting team in 1875, the Rallye Picardie, at the Château d'Avesnes
