Description

"Tutti Frutti" brooch in 18 carat white gold - Work from the 50s-60s Exceptional "Tutti Frutti" brooch in 18 carat white gold, a piece of high jewelry dating from the 50s-60s. This jewel with a bouquet of flowers motif is entirely paved, highlighting refined and elegant jewelry know-how. The bouquet is composed of a subtle blend of rubies, sapphires and natural emeralds, creating a dazzling play of colors, typical of the "Tutti Frutti" style. The whole is enhanced by 0.81 carat of brilliant-cut diamonds, VS quality and FG color, which accentuate the brilliance of the composition. The central knot, delicately set with diamonds, brings an additional touch of refinement, while the white gold stems bring dynamism and elegance to the piece. Features: o Period: 50s-60s work o Material: 18 carat white
