Description

Candlestick with chain and tongs. In silver. F. Roca, Barcelona, circa first half of the 19th century.

With hallmarks and engraving marks.

Candlestick in silver of the same color, composed of an openwork cup resting on two small feet (inside there is a vase-shaped piece to hold the candle) and a flat handle (curved towards the end, area where the third foot is located), decorated with two bands of pearls on the sides (a motif that also appears on the edge of the cup) and from the end of which emerges a chain that ends in tongs (which are placed on a piece welded to the lower part of the handle). The piece has two engraving marks and other hallmarks under the cup. The latter place the work in Barcelona, at F. Roca, a goldsmith active in this city during the second
