

Beautiful Portrait Of A Young Man Louis Philippe. Oil/canvas Framed Signed V A.. Dartiguenave

Description

This Pau artist born in 1821 and died in 1885 is called Victor Alfred Dartiguenave and he made this beautiful portrait of a young man of condition dressed in a frock coat and white shirt collar tied with a tie. A neat and very expressive portrait represents this young man with a direct gaze on a dark and nuanced background on the right of the face emphasizing his hair and his beard collar, very successful and Aristocratic bust painted in 1849 the year before the coup d'état of Napoleon III. An elegant portrait signed and dated finely at the bottom right and presented in a molded frame with a sober gilded cornice and suitably presenting this canvas on its original reinforced corner frame like the preserved canvas. An intimate work imprint of the romanticism of the end of the first half of the 19th century French
