Description:

Two-door wardrobe, from the Bavarian Alps, painted in an intense blue color.

On the front, four framed panels contain floral decorations with sunflowers. It is very rare to find decorations with this type of flower in Alpine furniture.

Over the entire surface of the furniture there are other floral decorations and orange-red panels, which create a pleasant chromatic contrast with the background blue, giving the whole elegance, color and warmth.

Large drawer in the lower part of the furniture.

Of particular interest is the original and functional hardware, including the fine door hinges, forged by hand and applied externally, as an additional decoration to a piece of furniture with a great scenic effect.

This wardrobe has never been restored but is in excellent condition. The new owners will be able to decide what work to do and the interior layout based on their preferences and intended use.

Information on the restoration:

The photographs you see depict the piece of furniture not yet restored. The state of conservation is excellent.

The piece of furniture, at the time of sale, will be supplied completely restored. The customer will decide the desired level of restoration.

Our laboratory guarantees conservative restoration for each piece of furniture while respecting its integrity.

Each piece of furniture is treated to ensure solidity and hygiene.

In particular, the following are carried out:

- structural restoration
- careful anti-woodworm treatment
- cleaning and sanitization of the interior
- external finish with natural beeswax
- internal finish with shellac (natural alcohol-based varnish)

Upon request, we can agree on the desired level of restoration and customization of the internal layout (clothes hanger poles, shelves, etc.).
