

18th Century Japanese Tanto

9 800 EUR

Period : 18th century

Condition : Parfait état

Material : Other

Length : 43 centimètres entier

Width : 4 centimètres au plus large

Depth : 5 centimètres d'épaisseur

Description
-------------

Koto tanto Epoque MOMOYAMA (1573 - 1603)A complete Tanto...In perfect condition...And complete with origin...JAPANESE origin...From the middle of the 16th century...With the blade in forged steel...Brass ring...The handle is made of wood covered in shagreen...Gold-gilded bronze badges...It's the golden copper menuki featuring paulownia and dragon...Which are themselves held by a cotton braid...Its tip is made of lacquered brass and the over-decorations are made of gold-gilded brass...The scabbard ( saya ) is made of wood, with lacquered leather work in several shades...The attachment to hang on the belt is made of lacquered wood and the tips are made of gold-gilded brass...It is the kozuja in shibuichi decorated with golden copper inlay and

Dealer
--------

Signature Antiquité

Collectibles and charm items

Mobile : 0685024976

67 Rue Nationale

Lectoure 32700

shibuichi of a hoe on a nanako background...The tsuba is made of cast bronze, chiseled and gilded parts...He is tatekaku gata in shibuichi and copper representing a dragon...Ovoid in shape...The mini tanto is made of forged steel...Has a signature on one of the sides...Identification in a few days...!Its handle is made of cast bronze, chiseled and the over-decorations are gilded with gold...Mini imperfections but really it's nothing serious...If of course you need other photos no worries... These are quite rare objects...Weight ... 408 gr