Description
-------------

Tulip-shaped silver chalice, richly decorated in repoussé, chased and guilloché. The chalice rests on a circular base profiled in an ogee, decorated with rosettes alternating with cartouches representing acanthus leaves. A Jerusalem Cross completes this ornamentation. The domed terrace is highlighted with a frieze of heart stripes and decorated with rolled leathers, three oval medallions representing Christ, Saint Peter and Saint James, as well as Eucharistic symbols: vine, bunch of wheat and rush. The shaft is made up of rings and collars decorated with friezes of rosaries and ropes. It is decorated with an ovoid knot decorated with Eucharistic symbols and palm leaves. The false cup has three medallions representing the three theological virtues and takes up the floral motifs decorating the chalice
