

5 Modular Armchairs "deca" Series By Tito Agnoli For Arflex, 1960

3 500 EUR

Signature : Tito Agnoli

Period : 20th century

Condition : Très bon état

Length : 60

Width : 70

Height : 60

Depth : 60

<https://www.proantic.com/en/1506463-5-modular-armchairs-deca-series-by-tito-agnoli-for-arflex-1960.html>

Description

5 Armchairs series "Deca" by Tito Agnoli for Arflex, 1960 5 elements for our modular sofa produced in the 1960s by Arflex based on a project by Tito Agnoli. Wooden structure, foam seats covered with a soft fabric, the base is in molded plastic resin. This Italian design sofa from the 1970s is in good general condition, foams and fabrics have been recently restored. height 60 cm width 70 cm seat 35 depth 60 Tito Agnoli was born in 1931 in Lima, Peru. Arriving in Italy after the war, he graduated in Architecture in 1959. He became assistant to Gio Ponti and Carlo De Darli. From the early 1950s, his design production was intense. In addition to Steiner, for whom he created the Cordoue sofa, he worked for Arflex, Cinova, Lema, Matteo Grassi, Molteni, Ycami and O'Luce, among others. His creations

Dealer

ô pêcheur de lune

antiquités et art du XXeme

Mobile : 0611765559

35 rue du bellocq

Saint-Sever 40500

have particularly marked the history of design. In 1986, he won the gold medal at the Neocon in Chicago. Questions about the product, logistics, invoices, payment methods, just one address to get your personalized answer
vincent@opecheurdelune.com