Description

Carved, gilded, and polychrome wooden torch holder, Rococo, 18th century.

Transformed into a floor lamp. Lamp with a triangular base resting on scroll-shaped feet and whose base is formed by a vase under a baluster decorated on its surface with rocailles, putti heads, mirrors, and gilded plant scrolls. Designed to hold a candle, it has been transformed into a floor lamp, which allows it to be used in a modern interior. -

Size: Alt. 166 cm
