Description

- Oil on panel. - A mass of people dressed in tricorne hats and jackets, most likely vain disguises that hide their misery, are celebrating a dance in a tavern. A child gives us a candid and ironic look, implying that he is the only one who understands the utter absurdity of the gathering, while the eternal old woman dressed in black recalls the worst of Spanish customs: the fideism, superstition, and senseless conservatism of the masses. - Unframed image dimensions: 71 x 38 cm - Galerie Montbaron includes a technical sheet prepared by a qualified art historian with all its lots. This form is sent in digital format and upon request.
