Description

View of a Canal in Venice by Frery, early 20th century. This painting is a romantic and nostalgic depiction of Venice crisscrossed by canals. The serene atmosphere and impressionist style are reminiscent of works from the 19th or early 20th century, capturing the timeless beauty of Venetian architecture and life on the water. The light is soft, suggesting a late afternoon or sunrise scene. The shadows are subtle, and the water beautifully reflects the buildings and sky.
