

Pigeon Throat Opaline Salt Bottle, Gold And Diamond Mount

2 800 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Parfait état

Description

Bottle of salts. It is made of hydrangea pink opal crystal, also called pigeon throat. It is cut on both sides with almond-shaped ribs of decreasing sizes. The base is flat. It has a pretty 18-carat gold stopper, eagle's head hallmark. The latter is decorated with spikes on the neck and the melon-shaped top is interspersed with rope motifs and set with a rose-cut diamond. Height: 7.2 cm
Width: 4.4 cm French work from the Restoration period

Dealer

SEBLANTIC

Objects of Vertu, Gold boxes, Opalines, Charm Jewelry

Tel : 06 12 89 44 19

4, avenue de Champaubert, Village Suisse, Galerie 14
Paris 75015