Description

Antique 56 zolotnik gold and diamond bracelet, Russia, 19th century Elegant rigid bracelet in 56 zolotnik yellow gold (equivalent to 14 Russian carats), dated 19th century, circa 1860-1870. It is adorned with rose-cut diamonds set on prongs, highlighting a beautiful harmony between the metal and the precious stones. The clasp is secure and works perfectly. Two small rings are present, allowing the addition of a safety chain (currently absent but can be added). This refined jewel displays an excellent state of preservation. The goldsmith's hallmark is partially erased but remains visible.
