

PROANTIC
LE PLUS BEAU CATALOGUE D'ANTIQUITES

Belle Epoque Necklace In White Gold, Pearl And Rose-cut Diamonds, Elegant And Imprint

1 800 EUR

Period : 20th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Gold

Description

Belle Époque necklace in white gold, pearl and exceptional rose-cut diamonds. Elegant and imbued with refinement, this Belle Époque necklace in white gold perfectly illustrates the excellence of late 19th-century jewelry. It is distinguished by delicate goldsmith work, highlighting a central pearl and a magnificent set of rose-cut diamonds. Unlike many jewels of this era where the diamonds were set with a closed back, here, each stone is mounted in an openwork setting, allowing optimal light penetration and exceptional brilliance. The rose-cut diamonds used in this necklace are of remarkable quality: dazzling white, with no visible inclusions, they capture and diffuse the light with a brilliance rare for this antique cut. The falling composition highlights a pear-shaped diamond in a pendant,

Dealer

MGA gallery

La passion de l'argenterie

Tel : +32 477 63 01 17

Rue Watteuu 9 et 25

Bruxelles 1000

bringing balance and sophistication to the whole.

Characteristics:

- o Period: Belle Époque (late 19th - early 20th century)
- o Material: White gold
- o Stones: Rose-cut diamonds of exceptional quality, without visible inclusions, and natural pearl
- o Setting: Openwork, open at the back for maximum brilliance
- o Dimensions of the pear-cut diamond: 11 mm (length) x 4.4 mm (width)
- o Dimensions of the pear: 7.1 mm (height) x 4.4 mm (width)
- o Neck circumference: 44 cm with two adjustment rings at 42 and 40 cm
- o Weight: 8.3 g
- o Clasp: Spring ring

This necklace embodies the prestige and finesse of Belle Époque jewelry expertise. The perfect harmony between the purity of the diamonds, the softness of the pearl and the delicacy of the openwork setting makes it a unique piece, combining elegance and brilliance in an exceptional piece of jewelry.