Description

Beautiful and rare historical document from the famous

André-François Petit gallery in Saint-Germain-des-Prés, a true nursery of the surrealist pictorial movement where all the greatest artists of the time such as Dali, Magritte, Ernst, de Chirico and many others were exhibited. This is an invitation to a retrospective of the Catalan surrealist's works from November to December 1977, including the famous Perpignan station illustrated on the back of the document.

The piece was enriched by Dali with his famous
