Description

Charles Kvapil is known for his sculptural nudes, but he excelled in his still lifes with intense tones. Here he delivers a bouquet of anemones and buttercups in a yellow vase on a pedestal table draped in yellow as well. The colors are intense and the composition creates an illusion of life. The still lifes of this painter are sought after in these tones of yellow. Oil on canvas in perfect condition Montparnasse frame in good condition some small chips rather on the sides.
