Description

Second half of the 19th century France Beautiful watch chain with real chestnut-colored hair with finely twisted double braids. Beautiful decoration in gilded metal pompom with double rings and central ornament in Second Empire style monogrammed TH. 43 cm long, can also be used as a choker for the more daring. Some frayed hair at the end of a braid, the rest in perfect condition, a popular art object to be pampered! Otherwise complete, no breakages. Good condition.
