Description

This painting depicts a mountain landscape with a stream and various vegetation, including dead tree stumps in the foreground. It is an oil on wood piece, signed by the artist in the lower right corner and also on the back with the name, title, and date of September 1945. René-Robert Jaeger, also known as Robert Le Veneur, was born on May 26, 1890 in Modenheim, Alsace and passed away on September 22, 1976 in Biot, Provence-Alpes-Côte d'Azur. He was a French painter whose works mainly consisted of landscapes and still lifes, characterized by a striking contrast of bright colors. Note: There are numerous works by this artist on the Internet which are erroneously attributed to Robert-August Jaeger (1896-1983) with whom he is not related, although there are certain
