Description

A six-panel gold leaf screen with a large dragon emerging from the clouds. The painting is made with the sumi-e technique, characterized by fluid and decisive brush strokes that define the dragon's scales and the details of the clouds. The panels are framed by a dark lacquer frame, enriched by patinated bronze hardware. Signed lower left. Period: Meiji Taisho early 20th century. Dimensions: 169 x 375 cm. Condition: Excellent. There is slight wear between the joints of the 1st and 2nd panels. Small crack in the paper between the 5th and 6th panels.
