Description

Beautiful jade glass vase with marbling and overlays effect by Charles Schneider. True to his reputation as a color magician, Schneider offers here a specimen with bright and intense colors. This brilliant glass called "jade" is broken down into two parts. The lower part indeed takes up marble veins, known as marbling (see last photos in the book dedicated to the artist) with beautiful wine lees and orange colors, while the upper part is a powdery pink cloud with touches of apple green. Beautiful trumpet shape with large flared neck, pedestal and small ball at the base. Perfect condition, 30.5 cm high and 23 cm opening at the neck, circa 1925. Authenticity guaranteed. Very beautiful art-deco vase, beautiful colors and techniques.
