Description

This lithograph, "Butterflies," demonstrates Jean Lurçat's commitment to exploring nature and the beauty of our world. His love of flora and fauna is reflected in every detail of this exceptional work. The skillful use of color in this tapestry is a hallmark of Jean Lurçat's style. The bright, vivid hues of the butterflies contrast harmoniously with the softer, more subtle shades of the surrounding landscape. This creates a joyful and poetic atmosphere that captivates the viewer's gaze. The choice of colors and patterns reflects Jean Lurçat's distinct aesthetic, who loved to blend realism and abstraction in his works. The butterflies are depicted with naturalistic precision, yet their forms blend and transform into abstract lines, giving the whole a dynamic dimension. This lithograph is a study work on standard paper
