Description

Round cricket box in polychrome Chinese porcelain decorated with various characters: servants in procession surrounding a man mounted on a dragon or fantastic animal, probably a representation of Lao-Tzu and his disciples, signed underneath (Tongzhi period 1862-1874?), from the 19th century. This box is in good condition. Signed underneath. Old collector's label. Please note: some enamel defects, dirt and wear from time, see photos.
