Description

Bronze Statue 'Horses Waiting' by E. Delabrierre. This magnificent bronze statue, created by French sculptor Edouard Paul Delabrierre, depicts a pair of horses waiting calmly. Sculpted with great precision, it highlights the animals' realistic anatomy and refined details. The horses' posture expresses both serenity and power, while the delicate finish of the reins, saddles, and musculature demonstrates true craftsmanship. The statue is created with a warm medal patina for the horses, while the bronze base is coated with a green patina, creating a subtle contrast that adds depth to the sculpture.
