Description

Introducing a stunning pendant lamp from Italian production, circa 1960s. This exquisite piece features a beautifully patinated brass structure paired with an elegant opaline glass bowl, enhancing its aesthetic appeal. The lamp is designed to accommodate an internal light bulb, ensuring a warm and inviting glow. While this lamp does not bear any brands or signatures, its exceptional craftsmanship and high-quality materials strongly suggest it is reminiscent of the works of Luigi Caccia Dominioni for Azucena. In perfect condition and featuring a newly rewired electrical system, this lamp is an ideal addition to a hallway, entrance, or any cozy nook in your home. It effortlessly complements modern decor while showcasing the timeless quality of mid-century Italian design. Additionally, the
