Description

Oil on canvas depicting a woman wearing a "little black dress" and a pearl necklace, against a dark background. The woman has short hair. Her piercing gaze fixes the one who is painting her. On her ears and finger, she wears beautiful jewelry with imposing stones. The woman's fair skin stands out against a dark background, where different patterns can be seen. Traces of a signature are visible at the top left. The canvas is large. It is clean and in very good condition. It is unframed. This portrait was created by Huguette Carron, an artist from Lyon. She exhibited at the Salon lyonnais des Beaux-Arts from 1920 to 1945 and was a member of the Artistes français in Paris. Work visible at the gallery (07240)
