

PROANTIC
LE PLUS BEAU CATALOGUE D'ANTIQUITES

Signed Froment-meurice Bangle Bracelet In Silver And 18k Gold, French Victorian Period, Flowers

2 450 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Sterling silver

Description

Froment-Meurice cuff bracelet in silver and gold .
Wide, rigid bracelet decorated with flowers framed by two friezes of chiseled leaves, punctuated with silver beads. The clasp is gold and bears the signature. This piece of jewelry was probably designed by Henri Caméré around 1875 for Froment-Meurice*. A similar model, a gift from Henri Vever, is currently on display at the Musée des Arts Décoratifs in Paris. Boar and eagle head hallmarks on the clasp, Froment-Meurice signature on the clasp tab. Wrist circumference: 18 cm - Bracelet width: 2 cm Note: the clasp has a safety chain Condition:
scratches from use Weight: 54.10 gr Biography: Émile Froment-Meurice (1837-1913) was a renowned Parisian goldsmith and jeweler, heir to the family tradition. He distinguished himself

Dealer

Maison Mohs

Antique & Vintage jewelry

- sur rendez-vous -

Paris 75004

with his refined creations combining gold, silver, and precious stones, often inspired by historicism and Art Nouveau. Collaborating with artists such as Henri Caméré, he created exceptional pieces for the aristocracy and world exhibitions. His work is now preserved in prestigious museums, a testament to his unique expertise.