

PROANTIC
LE PLUS BEAU CATALOGUE D'ANTIQUITES

A Sterling Silver Goblet By James Deakin & Sons Sheffield 1921

580 EUR

Period : 20th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Sterling silver

Description

This sterling silver goblet, crafted by James Deakin & Sons in Sheffield in 1921, is a beautifully preserved example of early 20th-century silverware. Known for their quality craftsmanship, James Deakin & Sons have created a piece that combines elegance with functionality. This goblet is hallmarked for London, showcasing its authenticity and providing a historical context for its origin. Typically found as presentation cups, this piece is notable for its pristine condition, having remained untouched, which is rare for items of this nature. With dimensions of 20.5 cm in height and a diameter of 10 cm, the goblet is substantial in size, making it an impressive piece suitable for display or use. Weighing 455 grams, it is crafted from a heavy gauge of silver, emphasizing its

Dealer

Bushells Antiques

Antiques and Jewellery

Mobile : +447956268290

71-75 Shelton Street

Covent Garden WC2H

quality and durability. The goblet's simple yet elegant design allows it to fit seamlessly into a variety of settings, whether used as a functional piece during special occasions or as a decorative item in a collection. Its excellent condition enhances its appeal, making it a valuable addition for collectors of antique silver or those who appreciate fine craftsmanship. This goblet's timeless design and historical significance make it a standout piece, sure to be admired for its beauty and quality. Whether displayed prominently or used for ceremonial purposes, it reflects the elegance and sophistication of its era.