Description

Pair of Napoleon III period upholstered and reupholstered ceremonial benches in ecological French linen, from the former Le Queens palace in Vichy, France. Their curved and singular silhouette allows for a varied staging: as a central pillar, back to back, face to face or side by side. The seats, with elegant cutouts, rest on fluted legs inspired by the Louis XVI style, giving the whole a subtle distinction. Discreet finishing nails and tufts adorned with linen flowers underline the attention to detail. The original patina, combined with the natural texture of the linen, reveals a sober and timeless elegance.
