micro-scratches and light wear from time, see photos. * The Évellin family is a French family of goldsmiths, bronze makers and chasuble-embroiderers, specializing in liturgical art, paramentics and the creation and restoration of goldsmithery. The current company is called Évellin Orfèvre. Since the creation of the activity in Nantes in 1822, several goldsmiths have succeeded from father to son. The activity quickly grew within the family to allow in 1924, the opening of a subsidiary in Rennes. The Évellin family was then supplier to the bishoprics, with goldsmith and embroidery productions that are distinguished for their quality of execution.
