Description

Art Deco period pedestal desk, entirely veneered in high-quality Macassar ebony, and decorated with stylized flowers. On the work side, this desk consists of: three drawers on the left, a drawer in the center, and a door on the right revealing 4 oak drawers. The right side of the piece of furniture conceals a door without shelves. A pull-out allows you to also work on the front, where we can see very beautiful Art-Deco decorations on each pedestal. (matching a bookcase that we are also selling) The top is covered with beveled glass to protect the very beautiful Macassar ebony veneer top with rectangular patterns highlighted with light borders (we note traces of wear on the glass). The whole is in good original condition, the patina is period as well as the drawer handles. The desk is very easily dismantled for transport.
