Description

Exceptional standing mirror of Vietnamese origin, made of solid wood, probably rosewood. The frame is richly decorated with mother-of-pearl inlays representing floral motifs, foliage, longevity symbols and auspicious ideograms, typical of the craftsmanship of Hue or Hanoi at the beginning of the 20th century. The lower part features a delicate relief carving of flower vases and incense burners, framed by elegantly carved side posts. The structure rests on a solid base, decorated with fine engravings and traditional motifs. Period: Early 20th century
Origin: Vietnam Dimensions: Height: 192 cm
Width: 120 cm Condition: Some losses in the mother-of-pearl elements, patina and natural wear of the wood due to age, but very good overall structural condition.
