Description

Marcel Pouget (1923-1985), a native of Oran, lived almost exclusively for painting, tracing an expressionist way that disconcerted his patrons and contemporaries, despite countless exhibitions, but which today finds a fair echo in the hearts of Lovers of modern art. This painting, very early in his work, dates from his first Parisian visit in 1947, financed by a group of Oranese amateurs who believed in him. The warm palette with exaggerated colors contrasts with the soft tenderness of the subject, a young mother suckling ... Oil on canvas 81 X 54 cm, one piece in the bottom, frameless. In partnership with Galerie Lafouresse, we also have many regionalist works on the Basque Country, the Landes, the Gironde and the Basin. More photos and more items in our shops in Pau and Biarritz
