d'Annonay.-Slight rubbings affecting the marbled paper of the dishes. A few pieces of title insulated. Beautiful internal condition, however, does not exclude some clear rednesses (of which very few sheets are more filled), leaflets sometimes slightly browned, small tasks or clear aureoles in the margin of the text. Print error affecting the last 6 of one of the volumes, remaining blank. Boards overall well preserved. Except for some of them the presence of rednesses (very rarely pronounced). Notwithstanding, together in fine condition. Very slight alterations affecting the binding. A few rare rednesses. Notwithstanding, together in very good condition.
