Description

Polychrome porcelain tea set Jean Pouyat in Limoges. The Pouyat manufacture (1835-1912) is known for the quality of its luxury porcelain. The model presented here is a porcelain "eggshell" service, complete, refined and difficult to find in this state. It is a derivative of the model "muslin on foot", first presented in 1862. It consists of: - a teapot - a sugar bowl - a milk jug - twelve cups - douze under cups A report: - on a under cup: a small égrenure. Two or three micro égrenures on the heel of others under cups, difficult to photograph. - on the milk jug: a small égrenure, probably a small shock that marked the place of porcelain. Ce is illustrated in the photos. Port colossimo 75EUR for France. For the foreign port on estimate. Contact 0687214700
