

Simone Valère. Hat Project. Théâtre Of The Odeon. Paris.

125 EUR

Signature : monogramme A.L.

Period : 20th century

Condition : Bon état

Width : 46 cm / 18,1 in Height : 27 cm

Description

Hat project for actress Simone Valère (1921-2010). A piece of blue cloth is pinned to the left of the sheet (fabric and color of the actress's costume). Unidentified play. Odeon Theater, Paris, 1950s-60s. Monogrammed AL 27 x 46 cm

Simone Valère, born August 2, 1921 in Paris 10th and died November 11, 2010 in Roinville-sous-Dourdan, is a French actress. She is mainly a famous figure of the theater alongside her companion and husband Jean Desailly, with whom she participated in the revival of theater after the war as part of the company Renaud-Barrault, before founding, always with him, the company Valère-Desailly. She has also made films, notably in the Beauty of the Devil

Dealer

Dupire et Kotek

Antiquités, tableaux, arts appliqués, vintage, objets de charme

Tel : 00 32 495 205 344

Mobile : 0032 474 26 22 88

Avenue de Broqueville 34

Bruxelles 1200

and The Franciscan of Bourges.