Description

Set consisting of 4 salerons and a mustard in sterling silver finely chiseled with swans decor wings spread among branches of reeds, hallmarked with Rooster (1st title), hallmark of the association of goldsmiths and punch of Grosse Recense of Paris, engraved MS on the feet, period Premier Empire early nineteenth century. These elements are in good condition. The glassworks are certainly not the original ones (one is different from the others). The mustard spoon is stamped to the Old Man. A note: missing the glassware of a saleron, shock, accident and deformation on the spoon, micro-scratches and wear of time, tiny deformations, see photos. Diameter: salerons 7.2 cm Height: mustard 9.5 cm / salerons 6.5 cm Weight: silver 313 grams Reference: 11120046A All photos are on:
