Description

Superb and rare pair of Louis XVI and XVIIIth century wall sconces. Consisting of 3 arms of lights fixed on a central shaft which is decorated with beaded twists ending in the lower part by acanthus leaves. In the upper part is a bouquet of flowers now the central arm of light, all surmounted by a large Louis XVI knot very characteristic of the time. Each light arm includes a finely chopped cup. Superb quality of its appliques, rare of time and in this size and in very good state of origin.
