Description

Large vase cylindrique with the dragons of Jules Vieillard in Bordeaux, enamelled decoration of in Améde de Caranza. The handles in the form of two trained dragons give its name to this vase Work of enameling of a very great finesse where the partitioned has almost entirely disappeared. Green and brown classic decor of the Bordeaux factory which dates to 1880 vase in almost perfect condition, to note only the lack of the tail of a dagoons. The restoration will be my responsibility if you want it to be done before delivery.
